

Amy Cornell

Email: acornell@bosepublicaffairs.com

Phone: 317-684-5425

Fax: 317-223-0425

Profile

Amy Cornell is a vice president with Bose Public Affairs Group as a member of the firm's government relations team. Cornell focuses on the firm's clients in the areas of state and local government relations, grassroots lobbying and stakeholder engagement.

In addition to her public affairs practice, Cornell is of counsel with Bose McKinney & Evans LLP in the Agribusiness Group.

Cornell serves as president of Agribusiness Council of Indiana (ACI) and is a member of the Purdue Agriculture Dean's Advisory Council. She is an adjunct faculty member at the Robert H. McKinney School of Law. Recently, Cornell was chosen as the consultant who will lead the development of a new cooperative agriculture law program with IU McKinney School of Law and Purdue University. Prior to joining Bose Public Affairs Group, Cornell served as policy advisor and counsel for Indiana Farm Bureau.

Education

Cornell received her bachelor's degree in management from Purdue University. She went on to receive her juris doctorate from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law and a LL.M. in agricultural law from the University of Arkansas School of Law.

Appointments / Memberships

Cornell is on the membership committee of the American Agricultural Law Association, a council member for the Indiana State Bar Association Agricultural Law Section, a participant in the Indiana Leadership Forum's 2017 class and serves on the Purdue Agriculture Dean's Advisory Council. She is a former board member and resource development Committee Chairperson for the Indiana Canine Assistant Network. She is a graduate of the AgrInstitute Agricultural Leadership Program.

Outside the Office

She is a member of Lebanon Christian Church and a volunteer for the Indiana Canine Assistant Network (ICAN).