Profile

Michael Brady is a vice president at Bose Public Affairs Group. In his role as vice president, Brady works with a variety of clients in the medical and health care industries. He represents his clients at the local and state levels before administrative agencies and in the legislature.

Prior to joining the firm, Brady worked as the director of advocacy at the Indiana State Medical Association, where he was responsible for strategic advocacy efforts on behalf of Indiana physicians and their patients in all levels of government. Previously, Brady was the director of INSPECT, Indiana's prescription drug monitoring program, where he worked to develop and implement initiatives to improve the program's effectiveness. Brady also has held positions with the City of Indianapolis, the Indiana Association of Cities and Towns and the South Bend Chamber of Commerce.

Education

Brady is a 2010 graduate of Indiana University's School of Public and Environmental Affairs, where he earned a bachelor's degree in legal studies with a minor in management.
