

Pete Seat

Email: pseat@bosepublicaffairs.com

Phone: 317-684-5405

Fax: 317-223-0405

Profile

Pete Seat serves as a vice president of strategic communications at Bose Public Affairs Group. In his role, Pete leads client accounts from a variety of industries at the local, state and national level utilizing his expertise in public relations, strategic planning, media relations and crisis communications.

Pete previously served as the executive director of strategic communications and talent development at the Indiana Republican Party where he oversaw the planning and execution of earned, social and digital media, in addition to serving as a spokesperson for the party and governor in state, regional and national media outlets.

Pete has worked as the communications director for successful statewide campaigns including Governor Eric Holcomb's 2016 gubernatorial campaign and former Director of National Intelligence Dan Coats' 2010 U.S. Senate campaign.

From 2006-2009, Pete served President George W. Bush in multiple communications roles including as deputy assistant press secretary where he was a spokesperson for domestic and international issues and advised the press secretary prior to briefings at The White House and aboard Air Force One.

Throughout his tenure, Pete has published columns in outlets across the country including Politico, CNN.com and MSNBC.com and has appeared as a guest on CNN, FOX News and MSNBC programs numerous times.

Education

Pete is a graduate of the University of Arizona with a bachelor's degree in theatre arts.

Honors / Awards

Author, The War on Millennials (2014)

Appointments / Memberships

Council on Foreign Relations, Term Member (2020-2025)

Atlantic Council Millennium Fellow, 2018-2019 Class

American Enterprise Institute Leadership Network, Spring 2018 Class

American Council of Young Political Leaders, Delegation to India (2015)

U.S. Global Leadership Coalition, Indiana Advisory Committee