Profile

Scott Bedwell is a senior policy advisor for Bose Public Affairs Group LLC and is an alcohol and tobacco industry consultant for Bose McKinney & Evans LLP. Previously, Scott was a member of the Indiana State Excise Police from 1991 through 2016, serving in the roles of industry liaison/trade relations and local alcohol board coordinator. He has extensive experience in working with industry members, including manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and dealers, on compliance and licensing related issues. Scott also has vast knowledge of 7.1 and 905 IAC alcohol laws and rules. As local board coordinator, he assisted officers and permittees on the alcohol board process and any problems that may arise during hearings. He has worked closely with top officials within the Tax and Trade Bureau of the federal government on compliance and licensing issues.
